

Chapter 9

Composition of the National Accreditation Committee

9 Composition of the National Accreditation Committee

Chairman: A renowned public figure such as a retired Supreme Court Judge who is experienced in Human Rights.

Executive Secretary: A person who is experienced in varied aspects of ART practice and who has adequate administrative experience.

Members:

- ◆ Representative of the Indian Council of Medical Research.
- ◆ Representative of the National Academy of Medical Science.
- ◆ Representative from the Ministry of Health & Family Welfare, Govt. of India.
- ◆ Representative of a scientific society that deals with ART. Care must be taken to ensure that such a representative should be from a society that has democratically elected office bearers and is governed by reasonable rules and regulations. The representative must have a proven track record of having contributed significantly to ART. The nature of the person's association with commercial companies must be made known publicly.
- ◆ A social scientist of repute.
- ◆ The Chairman of the National Bioethics Committee.
- ◆ A gynaecological endocrinologist.
- ◆ A gynaecological sonographer.
- ◆ An operative gynaecologist.
- ◆ A mammalian reproductive biologist.
- ◆ An andrologist.
- ◆ A representative of NGOs.

- ◆ A counsellor.
- ◆ A representative of patients.
- ◆ A medico-legal expert.
- ◆ A representative of FOGSI.
- ◆ A representative of ISSRF.